GDC RAMBAN ORGANISES ONE DAY ONLINE PROGRAM IN THE CONTEXT OF “NATIONAL READING/DIGITAL READING MONTH CELEBRATIONS 2021”

Debate and Seminar committee GDC Ramban organised an online program on 18-7-2021, under the theme/subject "25th P.N. Panicker National Reading /digital Reading, Month Celebrations 2021". The program was organized under the aegis of Dr. Mohsin Bashir Dar, Principal of the College in compliance to the directions of NITI Aayog Govt of India and in furtherance to the objectives of PN Panicker foundation's endeavor to reinforce the habit of reading through National reading/Digital reading. A large number of students and faculty participated in the program. The program started with the welcome address by Prof. Vijay Sharma, convener Debates and Seminar committee GDC Ramban. Prof Younis Ahmad, organizing secretary of the program highlighted the significance of ICT enabled teaching learning and online access to learning resource. Prof Younis Ahmad also compered the proceedings of the program. Prof Bal Krishan, convener Psychological Counselling Cell GDC Ramban also shared his thoughts on the occasion. He said that to expand the horizons of knowledge and to attain peace of mind, reading books is as important as e-learning. In the age of information overload (info-demic), reading books can help us to effectively carry out dopamine detox of our brain reward systems to strengthen our memories and enhance deep learning. Sharing his thoughts, Dr Bharat Singh, HOD physics advised the students to be careful about fake IDs, cyber bullying and cyber predators while using internet. Among student participants Rajni Chib, Dhriti Sharma and Ayiz Ahmad Mir also spoke on the occasion and shared their learning experiences. The other faculty members of the college who participated in the program were Prof Rajiv Kumar, Dr Vikram Rathore, Prof Vicky Rattan, Dr Fayaz Ahmad, Dr Ashiq Hussain, Dr Adil Ahmad, Dr Adil Hussain and Mr. Irfan Ahmad. The program concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by Dr Bharat Singh.
